THE REJUVENATION OF "MR. X."

CAVEMEN—AND OTHERS.

SOME REMARKABLE EXPERIMENTS WITH MONKEY GLANDS.

Rather monkey-like cavemen of the earliest times and "monkey-gland" rejuvenated men of to-day were discussed at the British Social Hygiene Council's Summer School at Welwyn. Professor Winifred Cullis told how she broadcast a lecture which was called—not by herself—"Monkey glands, and others." It lasted one hour and she thought the B.B.C. would be horrified if a lecture of such length was suggested to-day. But some people supported it because she was overwhelmed with correspondence, and it took her more than a year to answer all those who had sent stamped, addressed envelopes. (Laughter.)

Professor Cullis amused her audience by describing a film she had seen exhibited by the supporters of "monkey-gland" theories. The film showed a very elderly man so decrepit that he had no interest in life, and if they wanted to make him go they had to push him. The same man was then shown after grafting—very alert, upstanding, and truculent-looking, and he entered the film by charging the camera. (Laughter.)

Another film showed a Mr. X in a very similar condition to the ram. (Laughter.) He could not walk upstairs, and various other things indicated how helpless he was. Mr. X was then exhibited walking across a golf course swinging his clubs, riding, shooting, and rowing.

Professor Cullis said that a woman came to her later and said, in a voice that indicated she did not think much of him, that she knew Mr. X. She said he was a very objectionable person who had been a real old rascal. Mr. X died within two years of the operation.

Primitive and Cave Man.

Mr. D. Ward Cutler, chief microbiologist at Rothamsted experimental station, explained all about primitive man. "The earliest man could not speak," he said. "His jaw such that all he could do would be to make guttural sounds."

"Then there was another stage, the caveman. He flourished hundreds of years ago, had a long, curiously shaped jaw, shaggy hair with a rather 'bobbed' effect, a prize-fighter's nose, and sharp eyes. He was a distinct advance on his predecessors, and had learned a large number of useful arts—for instance, he knew how to make fire. It is doubtful whether he could speak in the way in which we know speech. He could probably make noises that would convey some of his feelings. He protected himself by going back into the entrance not only to make warmth for himself but to frighten away various creatures. He was able to chip flints and make primitive weapons."

Speaking of fish to be found one mile down in the sea, Mr. Ward Cutler said that some of them had enormous jaws, owing to the scarcity of food at such a depth, while others had enormous eyes, and yet another kind had no eyes at all. It was pitch dark at such a depth, but the type with no eyes carried about their own "torchlights" and had luminous areas which lit up their surroundings.

"Watery" Clerics.

Mr. Ward Cutler commented on the large percentage of water in the constitution of animals and plants, and recalled the remark, "It is an awesome thought that even the Archbishop of Canterbury is 90 per cent water." (Laughter.)

The actual weight or volume of the brain of a genius, he said, was probably very much the same as that of an unintelligent person. A woman member asked the lecturer why some people have more brains than others.

Mr. Ward Cutler: Because they use them more. One is born with a certain number of talents, and your environment and education are going to determine whether they are developed.

Mr. Ward Cutler had one comment to make on the question of sex: "In the Victorian days," he said, "sex was regarded as indecent; in the present day, there is a danger of its being so insisted upon by popular novelists as to become abnormal."

EPIC BATTLE IN RAGING SEA.

THREE DAYS' DRAMA IN DESOLATE OCEAN.

CREW'S GALLANT FIGHT WITH STORM.

The storm-tossed British steamer Tainui, 9,005 tons, berthed in the Albert Dock, London, last month, bearing the scars of a three days' battle with raging seas in the Pacific Ocean; when her chief officer, Mr. V. Saddle, was washed overboard and lost and five seamen injured while repairing the ship during the height of the hurricane. The Tainui sailed from Auckland, New Zealand, on June 28 with a cargo of butter and meat. She carried forty first-class passengers and thirty second-class.

After four days out at sea, when off the desolate Pitcairn Islands, the glass began to drop and a heavy swell lifted the ship. It proved to be the prelude to a hurricane, which slung the vessel like a cork on the mountainous seas, smashed companion ways and portholes and flooded cabins.

During these three days, no food was cooked owing to the galleys being awash with water.

A graphic description of the terrifying ordeal which the passengers and ship's company endured, their calm stoicism when the ship was all-but foundering, and the vessel's gallant defiance of the storm, was told to a reporter by one of the crew, Mr. Eric Thomson, a nineteen-year-old steward, of Roman-road, East Ham.

Huge Breakers.

"I have been going to sea for five years and have been twice wrecked," he said, "but I never saw such a gale as this. It blew for two days as hard as it could blow. Gally fires were extinguished, passengers were ordered below, and huge breakers came over the bridge and over down the funnels. At times the engine-room fires were extinguished.

"The ship pitched and tossed like a drunken thing for three days without intermission, and, as we knew we were in a desolate part of the Pacific, we felt that if the ship began to founder there was absolutely no help to be expected from other ships.

"There was nothing to do but to drive ahead and face the gale. With great difficulty our captain managed to keep the ship's head to the storm, for if we had gone broadside, even for a few moments, all would have been lost. On the third day of the gale I was standing in an alleyway looking forward and watching the breakers. This was at about nine o'clock in the evening. Suddenly a great wave came over the ship. The well-deck was completely buried, and the sea was level with the upper decks of the ship.

"We heard a smashing sound, and water poured into the saloon like a huge waterfall. The saloon door had been stove in by this tremendous wave. The passengers were terrified and rushed to their cabins. I heard the chief officer call for volunteers to replace the door, and five seamen in oilskins, sou' wester, and sea boots, headed by the chief officer, went forward to the teeth of the gale.

Seamen Badly Injured.

"I could see them working waist deep in water, and heard the chief encouraging them with shouts when, suddenly, another tremendous wave came over the ship. It covered the port through which I was looking for a moment, and when I could see out again the chief officer had been washed from the starboard side of the ship clean over the port rail.

"The five seamen were clinging to the rail like grim death, and appeared to be half-drowned. We dashed forward and brought the five men into safety. They were badly injured, but the chief officer was missing. He must have sunk immediately with his heavy rig. We poured oil on the water, but it was too rough to launch a boat.

"Fortunately, our steering gear held through the gale, or the ship would undoubtedly have sunk. The steering gear broke down a week later after the gale, though we were able to use the emergency gear."

Mr. Thomson said the presence of the chief officer was due to the presence of a Jonah among the crew.

DEATH AFTER A WRONG DIAGNOSIS.

CORONER'S SYMPATHY WITH A WIDOW.

"UNFORTUNATE CASE."

"This man has died under an anesthetic administered for the purposes of an operation for a disease from which he was not suffering."

Mr. Ingleby Oddie, the Westminster coroner, made this remark in recording a verdict of "Death by misadventure" at the inquest on Ernest Vivian Legg, aged thirty-seven, a steward in service flats at Piccadilly, W., who died in St. George's Hospital.

Louisa Legg, the widow, stated that her husband had been ill for a few weeks, and complained of an uncomfortable feeling round his heart. He was admitted into St. George's Hospital on July 30.

Dr. R. P. Shackleton said that when the man was examined it was diagnosed that he had cystitis and gallstones.

Back Not Examined.

Mr. Oddie: Did you examine his back?—No.

It is a pity you did not, is it not?—He gave no symptoms that he had anything in his chest.

There was a large amount of fluid in the chest, but you did not find it. If you had found it you would not have operated for gallstones?—No, sir.

It is just as well that you should always look for everything. You did not suspect fluid?—No.

Dr. Shackleton added that the patient was given an anesthetic for the operation, but he died before it had begun. Every measure to restore animation, including massage of the heart, was adopted, but without avail.

Dr. Frank Wild Holdsworth, resident anesthetist, said that if he had known that there was fluid in the chest he would have mentioned the fact to the surgeon and left the responsibility to him.

Pathologist's Evidence.

Dr. H. B. Weir, pathologist, said that the fluid could have been drawn off. The lung would have responded, and the man would have had a chance. Death was due to syncope under anesthesia while the man was suffering from a fatty heart.

Mr. Oddie said that it was unfortunate that the dropsy in the man's lungs was not discovered. He added:—

"It ought to have been, but it was not. It is a case of mistaken diagnosis. One must feel deep sympathy with the widow in this case, for it is quite obvious that her husband ought not to have been subjected to this operation."

It may be some comfort to her to know that if the fluid in the chest had been found, as it ought to have been, it would have had to be drawn off, and probably an anesthetic such as he had would have been given, and probably he would have died as he did.

No one is infallible. Every one at times makes mistakes, and a mistaken diagnosis occasionally occurs even with the highest surgeons.

"This is an unfortunate case," declared Mr. Oddie.

CAUSE OF PARROT DISEASE.

DUE TO A VIRUS.

As a result of research work by Dr. Bedson Dr. Western, it has been established that psittacosis (parrot disease) is due to a virus. At the Court of Governors of the London Hospital where the discovery was reported, it was stated that the cause of parrot disease had been a matter of speculation hitherto, and to have found the definite cause of the disease was no mean achievement.

A great impetus had been given to the hospital's research work by a gift of £50,000 in 1925 by an anonymous donor. Dr. Bedson was at work on filterable viruses suspected to be the cause of measles, smallpox, and other diseases. The doctors concerned are Dr. S. P. Bedson and Dr. G. F. Western. It was also mentioned that Dr. Donald Hunter was continuing his researches into calcium deficiency. He had recently described the cure of a patient whose bones were scarcely less rigid than rubber owing to lack of calcium. Dr. Hunter diagnosed the condition as being due to a small tumour in the neck of the patient which interfered with the control of the calcium supply to the bones. The tumour was removed, and in due course the bones resumed normal strength.

The house committee also reported that the X-ray apparatus and department were being installed at a cost of £2,575, towards which £4,684 had been subscribed. Great care had to be taken to protect the X-ray operator, and for the partitions of the new department special bricks were being used consisting of cement, cinders, and barium, a substance through which the X-rays were of great use in giving relief in many cases of cancer, and it was hoped that with the new department better results would be obtained.

HUMOUR: ANCIENT AND MODERN.

Mother—"Why did you strike your little sister?"
Young Bobby—"Well, we were playing Adam and Eve, and instead of tempting me with the apple she ate it herself."

Smith—"Have you ever been in a railway accident?"
Jones—"Yes, once when I was in a train and we were going through a tunnel I kissed the father instead of the daughter."

"What are the seven wonders of the world?"
"My wife's first husband was one, and it doesn't matter about the others. They sink into insignificance."

Shop Assistant—"A present for your wife, sir? Something electrical, perhaps?"
The Woman—"Yes, that's not a bad idea—er—have you any electric chairs?"

Wife—"What's the matter, dear? Something troubling you?"
Hub—"Yes, I'm just trying to figure out what daughter meant by the remark she just made."

Wife—"Why, what did she say?"
Hub—"She said she wasn't going to wear short skirts any longer."

"I suppose you will want me to give up my job, Henry, when we are married?"
"How much do you earn at it?"
"Sixty a week."

"That isn't a job. That's a hobby. I wouldn't want to interfere with your career, girlie."
Jones—"Have you seen one of those instruments which can tell when a man is lying?"
Smith—"Soon one! I've married one."

Sweet Young Thing—"I can't marry him, mother. He's an atheist and doesn't believe there is a hell."

Fond Mother—"Marry him, my dear, and between us we'll convince him that he's wrong."

Mrs. O'Reilly—"Good morning, Mrs. Murphy. I ain't seen your old man lately. Wot took him off?"
Mrs. Murphy—"A seizure."
Mrs. O'Reilly—"Dear, dear, you never say. Wot was it—er?"
Mrs. Murphy—"No, my dear—police."

"Mamma," questioned five-year-old Jennie, "am I as tall as you are?"
"No, dear," was the reply. "Your head comes to my waist."

"Well," continued Jennie, "I'm just as short as you are, anyway. My feet are as far down as yours."

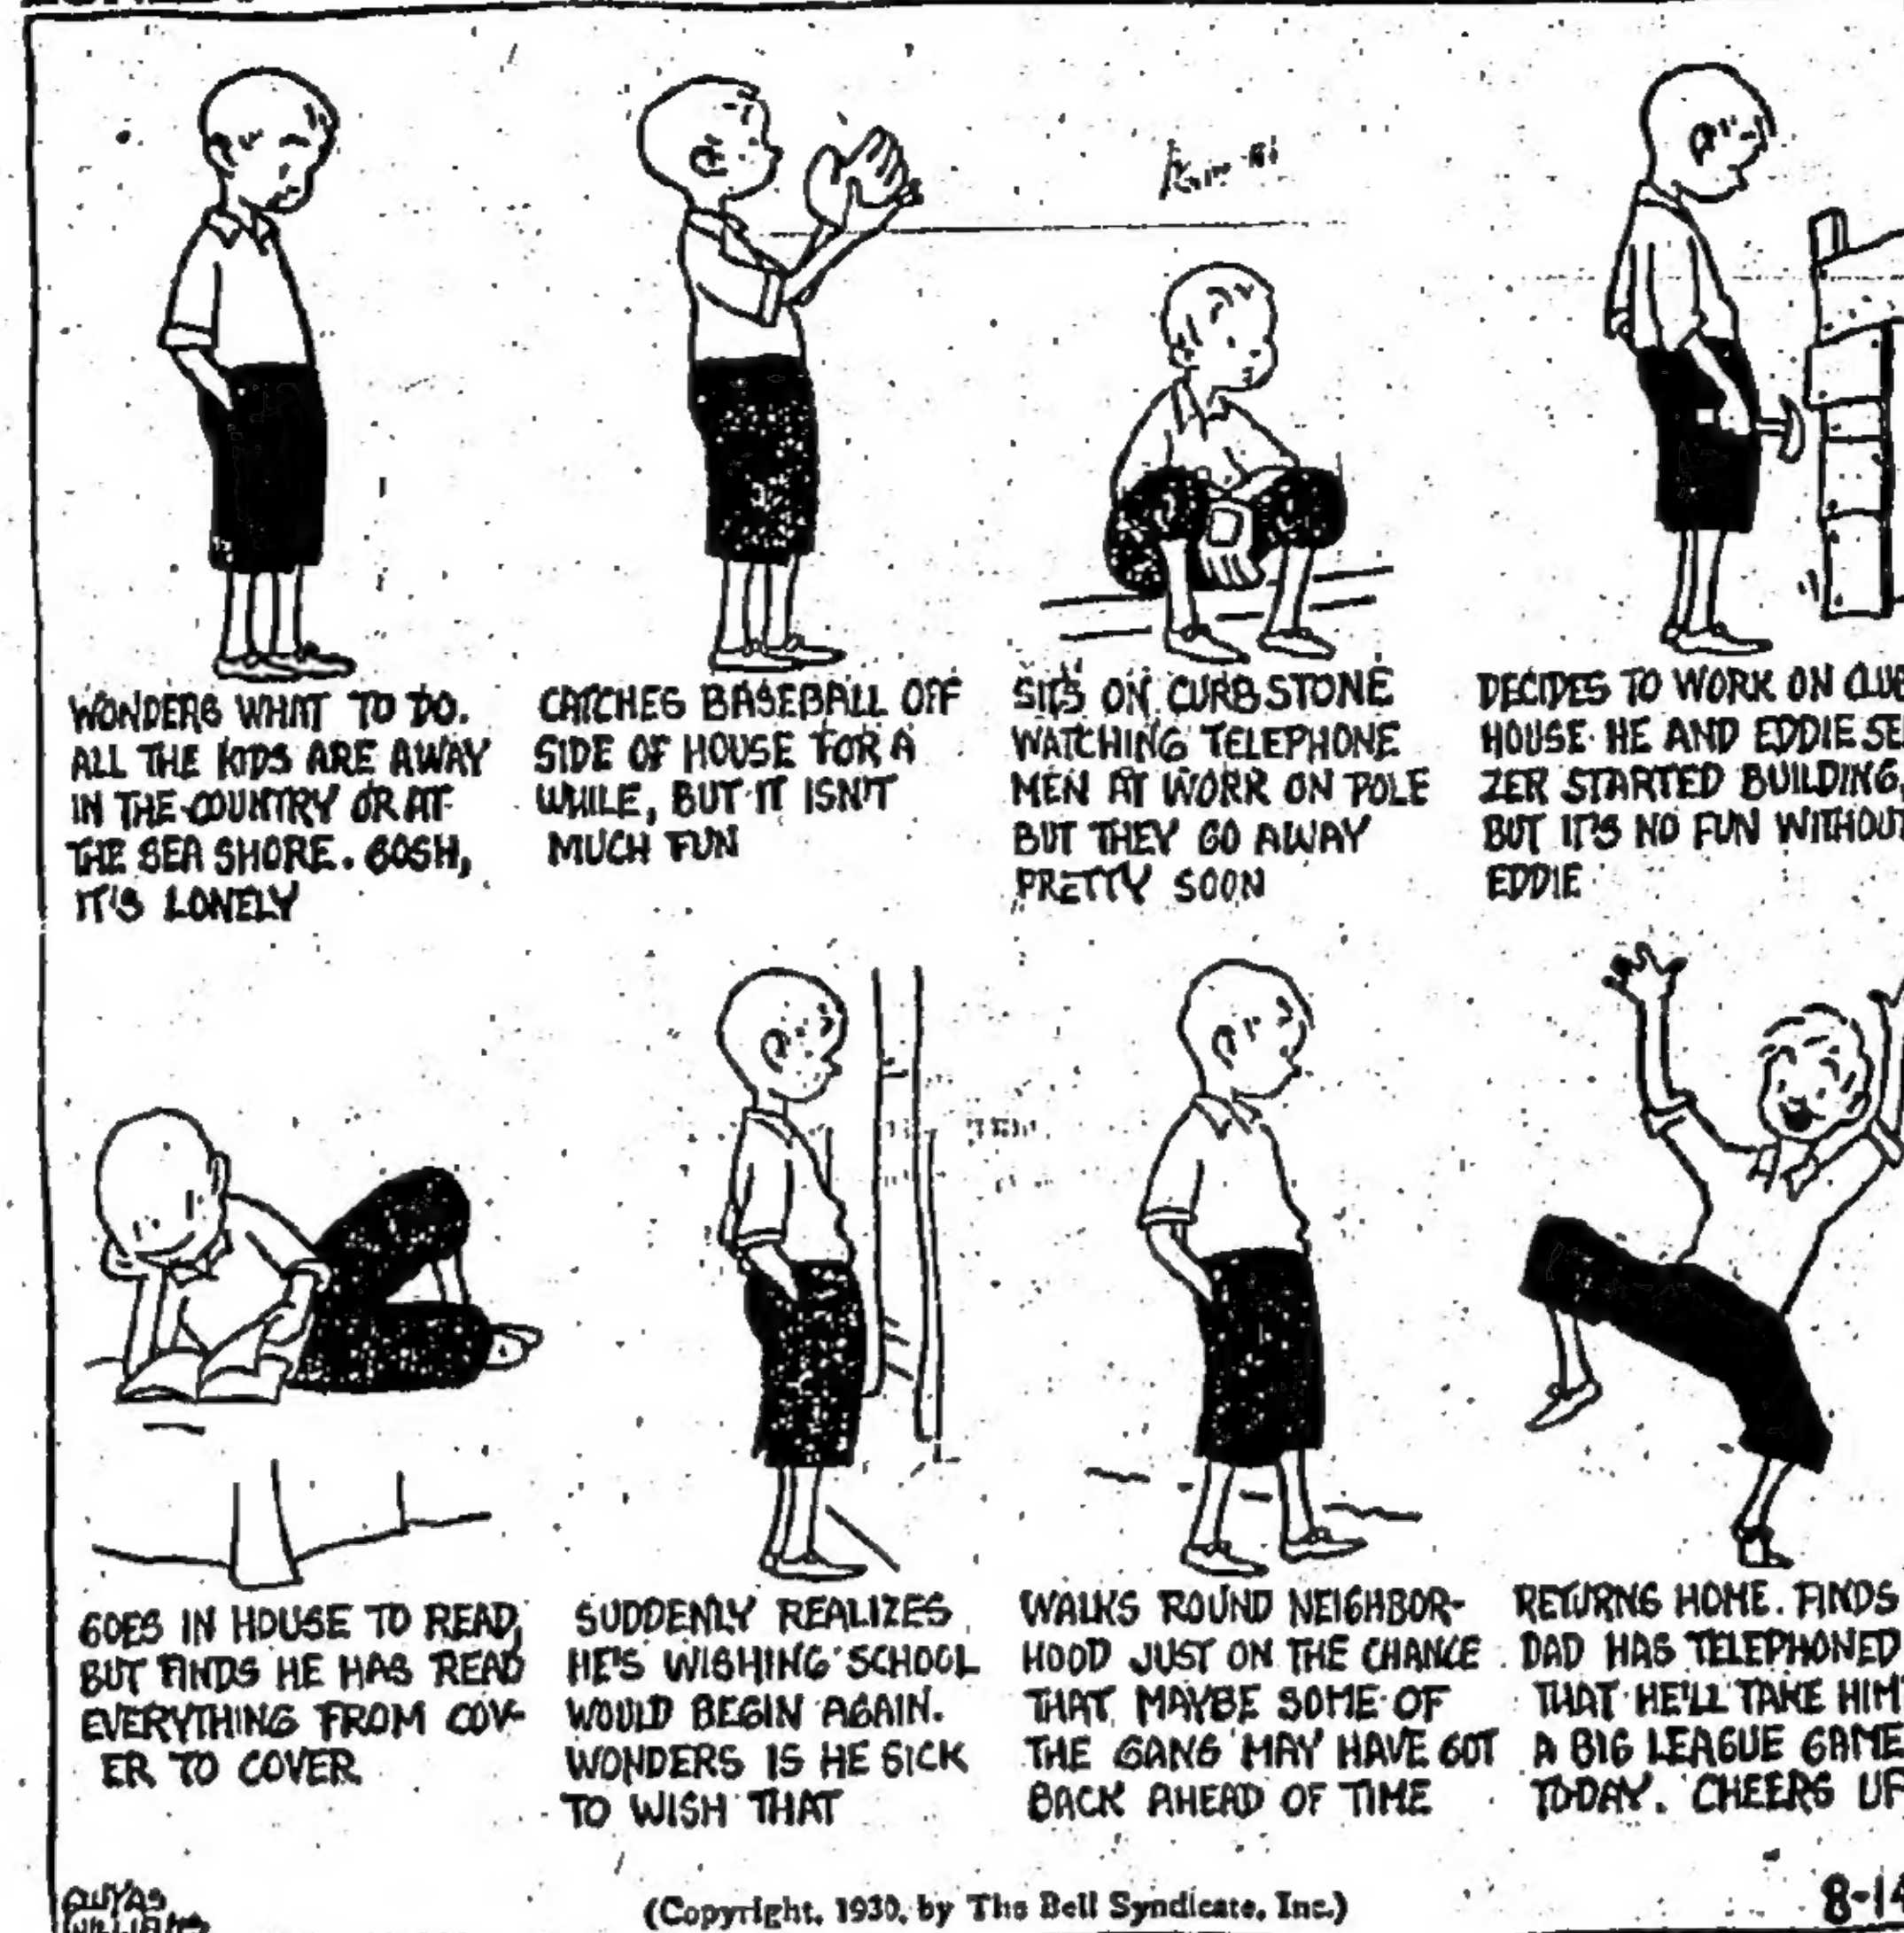

A university student, when sitting for an examination, was asked to compose one verse of poetry including the words "anatomy" and "anatomy."

He wrote:
My analyze over the ocean,
My analyze over the sea,
Oh, who will go over the ocean
And bring back my anatomy.

"I thought you were going to marry Betty!" asked Bill inquiringly.
"I would but for one thing," Jack returned, with a deep sigh.
"What's that?"
"Remember the old saying, faint heart—and all the rest of it."

LESSON SERMON.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONG KONG.

"Are sin, disease and death real?" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 12.

The Golden Text was: "Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore." (Psalm 37: 27.)

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up. For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness; neither shall evil dwell with thee." (Psalm 5: 3-4.)

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "All reality is in God and His creation, harmonious and eternal. That which He creates is good, and He makes all that is made. Therefore the only reality of sin, sickness, or death is the awful fact that unrealities seem real to human, erring belief, until God strips off their disguise." (p. 472.)

TREAT FOR MUSIC LOVERS.

JOVITA FUENTES AT THEATRE ROYAL TO-NIGHT.

Famous recitalist and grand opera star, Jovita Fuentes, now being acclaimed throughout Europe as the greatest of modern "Butterfly's" will arrive in the Colony to-day by the R.D.L. President Jefferson from a long and highly successful season in the Philippine Islands. Miss Fuentes will be accompanied by Maestro Karl Bamberger, noted German orchestra leader and pianist.

The rise to fame of the young singer, Fuentes, in Puccini's "Madame Butterfly," and her extensive work in recitals throughout Europe has attracted world-wide attention. In the field of sopranos Miss Fuentes possesses a voice second to none. She is also understood to possess a most engaging personality.

The young and beautiful Diva will make one appearance at the Theatre Royal to-night in the following specially arranged programme:

- 1.—Tre giorni con che Nina. Pergolesi.
- 2.—Er liebt mich so sehr. Tschakowsky.
- 3.—Du bist wie eine Blume. Liszt.

THE SILVER SCREEN.

JANET AND CHARLIE MAKING BIG HIT.

Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell are scoring one of the most sensational successes of their screen careers in "Sunny Side Up," the Fox Movietone musical comedy, now playing at the Queen's Theatre.

It is the first time either of the famous Fox stars has appeared in a musical comedy role, and their performances in this production proves their adaptability to this style of entertainment.

Sharon Lynn, who made her musical debut in "Fox Movietone Follies of 1929," has a featured role, as also has Frank Richardson, who was first heard in "Fox Follies." Marjorie White, famous Broadway comedienne, and El Fréndol, the famous Swedean, also are winning applause by their performance in this musical comedy of the audible screen.

David Butler directed "Sunny Side Up," and Seymour Felix, Broadway's most famous dance director, staged the dances and song numbers.

Chevalier's Song Hits in "Paramount on Parade."

Two tuneful songs were especially written for Maurice Chevalier, for his hit numbers in "Paramount on Parade." The songs are "Sweeping the Clouds Away" and "All I Want Is Just One Girl." The second of these numbers is used by Paramount's child prodigy, Little Mitzi Green, the only child actress under contract by Paramount, for her number in the sparkling festival, in which she mimics Chevalier.

"Sweepin' the Clouds Away" has a spectacular setting and the number in which it is sung, "Rainbow Revels," filmed in Technicolor was directed by Ernest Lubitsch, who directed Chevalier in "The Love Parade." Lubitsch took the Parisian songster and the scores of dancing girls who appear with him to the house-tops of Paris, and even into the skies, via a colourful rainbow, during the course of the song.

The second of Chevalier's songs is introduced in a typical Chevalier Lubitsch skit, played with a subtle humour reminiscent of "The Love Parade." In this skit, Chevalier appears as a Parisian gendarme, on duty in a park where lovers are wont to go.

"Broadway Babies."

Life behind the scenes of a Broadway chorus, in a theatrical boarding house and on the Great White Way vie for interest with underworld and gang thrills in "Broadway Babies" at the Majestic Theatre.

"Broadway Babies" is a First National all-talking, and singing Vitaphone picture starring Alice White. With her as chorus-mates and room-mates are Sally Eiles and Marjón "Péanité" Bryon, two high-steppers of filmdom. Charles Delaney is the hero, and a trio of famous toughs, Fred Kohler, Louis Nathanux and Maurice Black, are the gangsters. Jocelyn Lee leads off the charms of a big chorus seen intimately in practice, in the dressing rooms and at home.

"Impromptu"—Rococo (Schutt) and "Valse" (Arensky).—Harold Bauer, Ossip Gabrilowitsch, Piano.

"Rose in the Bud" and "One Little Dream of Love"—Renée Chemet, Violinist.

"Spanish Dance" (Bizet) and "Hungarian Dance No. 3" (Brahms).—Philadelphia Symphony.

Gems from "The Student Prince" and gems from "The Love Song"—Victor Light Opera Co.

HOME FOOTBALL RESULTS.

DERBY COUNTY GIVE ARSENAL THEIR FIRST DEFEAT THIS SEASON.

CELTIC BEAT RANGERS IN GLASGOW CUP FINAL.

Four of the First Division English League matches played on Saturday were drawn. Aston Villa were among the teams sharing the points, but they were able to take the premier place on a slightly better goal average consequent on Arsenal's defeat for the first time this season. Manchester United suffered their tenth defeat.

Preston drew level with Everton at the top of the Second Division, the latter sharing the points with Barnsley. Northampton changed places with Torquay in the Southern Section behind the leaders, who had a comfortable victory. Lincoln and Tranmere in the Northern Section remain in the same order at the top.

A few changes occurred in the Scottish League owing to Celtic and the Rangers being engaged in the Glasgow Cup final, which was won by the former. Queen's Park, instead of playing on home ground, took on a visiting rôle to lose badly to Partick. Clyde were sent down to meet Ayr United and won by two goals. Motherwell and Cowdenbeath, both winning, became the temporary joint-leaders in the League.

Results as enabled by Reuter and revised League tables follow:—

CONSUMPTION HAS BEEN CURED.

A REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION HAS BEEN FOUND.

DR. F. J. YONKMAN, DISCOVERER OF THE NEW REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.

Marvellous as it may seem after centuries of failure, a remedy has been discovered that has cured the deadly Consumption even in the advanced stages of the disease. No one will longer doubt that Consumption can be cured after reading the proof of hundreds of cases cured by this wonderful discovery—some after change of climate and all other remedies tried had failed, and the cases had been pronounced hopeless of cure. This new remedy has also proved itself effective and speedy in curing Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, and other serious throat and lung troubles. In order that all in need of this wonderful produce of science may test its efficacy for themselves, a Company has been formed to give it to the world, and a Free Trial Treatment can be obtained by writing the Dr. F. J. Yonkman Co., Ltd. (Dept. C. 237), 115/120, Fleet St., London E.C. 4, enclosing 6d. in British Postal Order to cover cost of carriage and packing, and mentioning this paper. The trial treatment will then be sent by return mail, carriage paid.

ABSOLUTELY FREE.

Do not wait if you have any of the symptoms of Consumption. If you have Chronic Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Pains in your Chest, a Cold on your lungs, or any Throat or Lung trouble, write today for a free trial treatment and book of instructions, and benefit yourself before it is too late.

TRANS-ATLANTIC FLIGHT.

CANADIAN FLIERS SUCCESSFUL.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Oct. 10.
Captain Erroll Boyd and Lieut. Harry Connor, who left Harbour Grace, Newfoundland, on October 9 on a trans-Atlantic flight in the monoplane Columbia, landed safely in Tresey, in the Scilly Isles, at 4.30 p.m. to-day.

It is understood that they had trouble with a petrol tank.

The airmen hope to reach Croydon on October 11.

They were sighted off Ireland earlier in the afternoon.

Welcome at Croydon.

LONDON, Oct. 11.
The trans-Atlantic airmen Boyd and Connor landed at Croydon and were welcomed by a huge crowd.

The first to greet them was Mr. Levine, the millionaire original owner of their plane, in which he had crossed the Atlantic three years ago.

Graphic Story of the Flight.

A graphic story of the trans-Atlantic flight was told by Captain Boyd on his arrival at Croydon.

He said that after leaving St. John's, Newfoundland, at 4.35 p.m. on the 9th inst., the Columbia encountered head winds and rain squalls. In the darkness they flew "blind" and mostly by dead reckoning throughout the night.

Connor, in the morning, succeeded in finding their position, but the storms had driven them about 400 miles south of their course.

Five hours before landing, they discovered that their rear tank containing 100 gallons of petrol was not functioning, and they dumped it into the sea.

They had a most anxious time before landing, as they were practically without petrol, and the wind velocity was between 50 and 60 miles an hour. They had only a tiny strip of beach upon which to land, but they came down safely after a flight which had lasted about 23 hours.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

Flier's Adventurous Career.

TORONTO, Oct. 10.
The news of the safe landing of the trans-Atlantic flier, Captain Boyd, has delighted his father, mother, wife and four young daughters.

Captain Boyd, who is 38, has had a most adventurous career. He participated in the raid on Zebrugge, when the engine of his aeroplane was put out of action by direct hit. He descended 12,000 feet and landed inside the Dutch border. He tumbled from his aeroplane unhurt.

Captain Boyd crashed in New York two years ago from a height of 300 feet and was unhurt. He was previously fired on by bandits in Mexico, and his aeroplane was riddled by bullets, but he was not harmed. Boyd has also been a motor salesman, manager of a grocery store, and a song writer.

A QUERY FROM CANTON.

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONG KONG DAILY PRESS."]

Sir,—Referring to your editorials of the 4th and 9th instant one cannot help but be interested, although not a resident in the Colony.

It is so easy to vote increases when one has not to pay them themselves, such as Official Members of the Hong Kong Government—but those (the ratepayers) who have to pay out of their own pockets these increases should, in all fairness, have the right to a say in the matter, and to demand that the Hong Kong Government should DECREASE expenditure instead of ruthlessly increasing it, especially in these times of extreme depression in trade.

Will Hong Kong and Kowloon ratepayers be given their right to object to these increases, and will the Unofficial Members of the Legislative Council put up a strenuous opposition against these increases?

If Hong Kong and Kowloon really feel that these increases are unjustified, why do they not call a public meeting in protest before it is too late?—Yours, etc.

SHAMEEN.

Canton, October 10.

ONE QUERY ANSWERED.

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONG KONG DAILY PRESS."]

Sir,—In reply to the question raised by "Aerial" in your columns yesterday, perhaps, he and others will be interested to know that the lady who is now Programme Secretary to the H.K.B.C. has had considerable experience at home in the organisation of entertainments, and apparently fully satisfied the Committee that she was well qualified for the position she now holds.—Yours, etc.

TO HELP NAVAL CHARITIES.

NELSON DAY CONCERT NEXT WEEK.

Those who attend the Nelson Day concert which is to be held at the Lee Theatre on Tuesday, October 21, at 9 p.m., will be helping naval charities and the Sea Cadet Corps in which the Navy League takes a deep interest. The lads who join the Sea Cadet Corps are trained in seamanship, signalling, etc., and eventually many of them find positions in the Royal Navy and the Merchant Marine. Others emigrate to the Dominions, where the training they have received in technical matters and in character formation are of the greatest value.

This year, the parent organization of the Navy League is making a special effort on Trafalgar Day for the Nelson Day Fund which finances the Sea Cadets. A big street collection is being held in London for this cause.

Hong Kong's concert, which will be under the patronage of H.E. the Governor, H.E. the General Officer Commanding, and Rear-Admiral R. A. S. Hill, will be a first-class show at ridiculously low prices. The full band of the Argyl & Sutherland Highlanders will appear.

A special film, entitled "The Royal Navy Ashore and Afloat" will be screened, and some of the Colony's best artists will contribute to the programme. Seats are 2s and 1s, with special tickets for Service men and friends at 30 cents, including train fare to and from the Theatre.

FATAL ACCIDENT IN CHINA BUILDING.

ONE MAN KILLED AND ANOTHER INJURED.

A fatal accident occurred at the China Building, Queen's Road Central, yesterday afternoon when one workman was killed and another seriously injured.

It appears that several workmen were repairing a lift in the building when the lift suddenly descended, killing Lee Kwai instantly, while a fellow-worker, Chow Li, sustained a fractured leg.

The injured workman was rushed to the Government Civil Hospital.

CONVENT BAZAAR.

DR. KOTEWALL PERFORMS OPENING CERMONY.

The charitable work done by the Sisters of the Precious Blood Convent was stressed at the opening of the bazaar and fete at Wah Yan College on Saturday. An array of useful articles adorned the stalls, which were in charge of a working committee of young ladies and gentlemen. The bazaar, which is held annually to provide funds for maintaining the institution, was continued yesterday.

The bazaar was under the distinguished patronage of Lady Peel, Lady Shou-son Chow, Mrs. V. M. Grayburn and Mrs. A. H. Ferguson.

In declaring the bazaar open, the Hon. Dr. R. H. Kotewall, C.M.G., LL.D., said:

This is not the first time that I have had the pleasure of opening the annual bazaar of the Precious Blood Convent Society. I accepted the invitation to perform the function again this year because I always consider that the good Sisters of the Society deserve all support from the public. The Society has been established in Hong Kong for over forty years, and its object is to care for poor orphans and decrepits, irrespective of race or creed. I understand that it depends almost entirely upon their annual bazaar for funds to maintain the institution; and I would therefore urge you all to spend freely at this bazaar where you will find a large number of articles that are attractive as well as useful.

SOCKS

Your attire, broadly speaking, is built on a foundation of sock. There's a lot of real comfort or otherwise in a pair of socks . . . not necessarily physical comfort.

Let them, your socks, fit your feet like gloves do your hands. Let them be unostentatious, but still sufficiently obvious to proclaim themselves as good socks. If they are good socks. If, in short, they are our socks.

There's not a cheap-looking sock among all we have to show you . . . and we can still surprise you pleasantly with the price we ask.

FAST TIMES AND BIG DIVIDENDS.

ZORHAN REDEEMS HIMSELF: WINS FIVE FURLONGS RACE IN EFFORTLESS MANNER.

MR. DA ROZA THE MOST SUCCESSFUL JOCKEY: WINS SEVEN OUT OF FIFTEEN OFFICIAL RACES IN TWO DAYS.

NATIONALIST II. HARD PRESSED BY WINDSOR STAG.

[By "MORNING DEW."]

Mr. G. U. da Roza was outstandingly the most successful jockey during the Eighth Extra Race Meeting. Out of the thirteen times he started he obtained seven wins, three seconds and two thirds, being unplaced only once!

Saturday's sport was marked by the great performance of Zorhan who won the five furlongs in effortless manner, and returned a time which was only three-fifths of a second behind that of the record set by Apollo at the Annual Meeting.

Pagoda and Nationalist II. repeated their victories of the first day. Nationalist II. had all his work cut out to secure victory against Windsor Stag, who after leading all the way, was passed by the ultimate winner in the straight. Windsor Stag made a determined effort to re-establish a lead and this resulted in a thrilling finish at a gruelling pace in which Nationalist II. stalled off the Stag by three quarters of a length. This was undoubtedly the greatest race of the meeting.

Below will be found a running comment of the day's racing, together with full cash sweeps, betting and pari-mutuel details.

TONBRIDGE'S GREAT WIN OVER BRIDGE HALL.

THE RACING.

Yunnan Handicap "B" Class.

Why Grenadier and Touchit, both of whom were accounted for by Pagoda in the previous day should have been made bigger favourites than Pagoda is difficult to imagine, but the fact remains that they were. Pagoda and Touchit got well away at the start, but Touchit faded out before half the distance was over and never looked at any stage like a winner. He was all finished by the time the straight was reached. The field looked like a mass of moving colours as it entered the straight, but half-way up, Pagoda's colours could be seen coming through. He gradually drew away from the others and eventually won by a length and a half. Ploughman and Morvanagher, both lightly backed, took the other places. Those who took bets on Morvanagher for a place drew $68.00 for each ticket from the pari-mutuel. Grenadier was the biggest failure here, as he was never prominent throughout the course of the race, a bad start accounting, no doubt, for this. Mr. da Roza rode the winner here, as well as in the Yunnan Handicap "A" Class, which was the next race on the card. Here Mrs. Pearce's pony, Tonbridge, led practically all the way. He lost ground on the village, and Bridge Hall took the lead from a field of eleven. Bridge Hall entered the straight all by himself, two lengths in front of Tonbridge and Sonny Boy. Tonbridge, however, made a supreme effort to overhaul the leader and, amidst the shouts of excited punters, just managed to get his head in front as the two were passing the judge's box. While Mr. da Roza rode a fine race here, Mr. Pan on Bridge Hall, if anything, rode even better, and although beaten, did quite well in bringing in Bridge Hall, who is wanting in form.

The next race, Hupoh Stakes, found nine novices accepting. Young Pretender with Mr. A. W. da Roza was a red hot favourite, but he was soundly defeated by his own jockey. Falling a victim to a scratchy start, Mr. da Roza was contented to ride a waiting race, trusting to a final burst to relieve the situation. In this he made a great mistake, as his pony was fully fifteen lengths behind the leaders at the Rock. Young Pretender game on gradually from that point onwards, but he had eight ponies in front of him, and although he was speeding past them all, he had to be taken far away from the rails and thereby lost valuable ground. The race went to Blue Heaven, who won by a neck from Misty Eve, after the latter had led all the way up the straight. Young Pretender was a short head behind the second pony.

After two races in which the winner got the verdict by a neck came the great race of the day, the Double Ninth Plate, which drew six entries, including Zorhan. The other starters were Chesapeake Bay, Pride of Tsingtao, Duke of Chantilly, Our Prince and Plecthill. From the fall of the flag, Zorhan took charge of things, and, running beautifully, won by four lengths from Chesapeake Bay, who in turn accounted for Pride of Tsingtao. Chesapeake Bay was left at the start, and he ran with the finish so that his victory over Pride of Tsingtao has a double merit.

Notwithstanding the many defeats of Pride of Tsingtao, there were no less than 548 winning and 1,074 placed tickets on this pony. Such is fame!

Polo Scurry.

Polo players must have been surprised to find Grey Dawn so well backed, as it must be a puzzle to them as to how the public knew enough about him to back him with such confidence. Grey Dawn took the lead and increased it with every stride, finishing five lengths in front of Saure, who was in turn two lengths in front of Grey Mouse.

Chokiang Stakes.

Mr. Frost scored his second win of the day in this event, when he won by three lengths from San Francisco ridden by Mr. Heard, who in turn was four lengths ahead of Monterey Bay. Curiously enough the order of the public demand for those ponies was exactly the same as the order in which they finished.

Winsome Stag and San Francisco led throughout, but Mr. Heard's experience gave San Francisco a momentary lead in the straight. However, once round is a bit too far for San Francisco, so that Winsome Stag had no difficulty in the last furlong in re-establishing his lead. Monterey Bay also put up a hot challenge at one stage, but found the pace too much and had to be satisfied with third place.

In the next event, Szechuen Handicap

Mr. Backhouse scored his first win of the meeting on Peppercorn. The favourite here was Christmas Chimes who had his old jockey, Mr. Heard, back in the saddle. Peppercorn, however, gave the others no chance whatever, and from the half mile home, he never looked like anything else but a winner all over. Mr. Harriman on Orlando showed the way in this mile and quarter race, followed closely by The Tiger, Little Thunder and Christmas Chimes. Orlando faded away at the five furlongs post and The Tiger then took charge of things, followed by Christmas Chimes, Little Thunder and Town Hall. Peppercorn was still well held at this stage, but in the run up to the Rock he was given the bit and he passed the other without much effort. Taking the lead from the Rock, Peppercorn gradually drew away from the field, and although he was pursued for a while by The Tiger, he had enough in hand to win by four lengths. Fifty Fifty and Christmas Chimes both passed The Tiger in the straight, but neither had sufficient in hand to threaten the winner in any way. Christmas Chimes almost lost the third place when The Tiger came again on his second wind in the last hundred yards of race.

The two-days meeting had opened with a win by Nationalist ridden by Mr. Roza, and what was more fitting than that it should close with a win by the same horse and the same jockey. In the Szechuen Handicap "A" Class, the last race of the day, Nationalist II. Royal Flush and Windsor Stag, all starters of the past, faced the starter. Mike, a winner of the previous day, Black Beauty and Crown Prince were the other contenders. The last three were never in the race. Windsor Stag led over the first mile, but as the field was entering the straight, Royal Flush and Nationalist both drew level and shortly afterwards Nationalist drew ahead. Then Mr. Frost gave a fine exhibition of what he was capable of, and his riding was let's us hope that might have spelled victory for Windsor Stag, but in spite of all his efforts, Nationalist—obviously a better pony—managed to keep in front. The pace was terrific and the crowds were amazed at the efforts of the rivals. Nationalist II. carried more than three times the money put on Windsor Stag.

FOREIGN RIGHTS IN CHINA.

THE RECENT OUTRAGE NEAR SWATOW.

SEQUEL TO TRADE BOYCOTT.

Mr. C. Hanks, of Messrs. Jensen & Co., left Hong Kong yesterday for Swatow, near which place he was recently the victim of an outrageous assault. The incident was reported in our columns at the time, but the following is the first full and authentic account of what actually happened.

On August 30 Mr. Hanks, accompanied by two Chinese assistants, set out from Swatow to Chaoan (Fukien) in order to investigate the boycott of sulphate of ammonia, and the attitude of the Government authorities toward it. He also took 300 bags of sulphate which were ordered by his firm's agent in Chaoan.

Military Interference.

At Gin Kao Mr. Hanks went ashore to declare the shipment at the native customs. The Customs Officer, Mr. Hwang Su Hun, would not allow transshipment to Chaoan, as he had been advised by the Kuomintang party of the prohibition of sales of artificial fertiliser. Upon the strength, however, of the Customs House papers he permitted the transshipment, and the men commenced to load the cargo into junks when some soldiers appeared, who ordered them to stop. Asking them on whose authority they acted? They replied that they had received instructions from Hwang Su Hun. Mr. Hanks called three times on him to verify this statement, but Mr. Hwang Su Hun denied giving the order. After a strong protest and again presenting the Customs House papers the soldiers were withdrawn, and the work was continued.

Threatened With Revolvers.

Mr. Hanks and one of his assistants arrived at Chaoan the following day. As soon as they went ashore they were surrounded, knocked about, and robbed by a big crowd, many of whom wore the Kuomintang badge. About ten held revolvers in their hands.

Mr. Hanks, being under the impression that they were Government officials, applied in vain to them for protection. On the contrary, Mr. Hanks and his assistant were dragged roughly along the streets, a man with a drawn revolver going in front of them and another forcing them to go forward by pressing a revolver in their backs.

Inquiring the meaning of this treatment, they were told that they were going to be shot. They were conveyed to the Headquarters of the Labour Union and their arms tied with ropes. Afterwards paper caps, painted with Chinese characters of a defamatory nature, were put on their hands and they were then paraded through the streets, accompanied by a large crowd carrying paper flags bearing similar Chinese characters. Anti-foreign speeches were made by the Chairman of the Labour Union and others. The party proceeded in the same way as before, forced to walk by pistol being repeatedly taken. Photographs were repeatedly taken. The crowd was shouting continually: "Down with the White Devils! Down with Imperialism! Prohibit Artificial Fertilisers!"

Formal Charges.

In the afternoon Mr. Hanks and his assistant were relieved of their bonds by the Magistrate's secretary and taken to the Magistrate's building, where a room was assigned to them. After having been detained a few days Mr. Hanks was informed that the following charges were brought against him:

- 1.—Not being in possession of a Chinese travelling passport.
- 2.—Forcing the importation of sulphate of ammonia by means of arms.
- 3.—Demolishing the Customs House.
- 4.—Failing to report his arrival to the authorities.

All these charges were false, as stated below:

- 1.—Mr. Hanks was in possession of a Chinese travelling passport.
- 2.—Mr. Hanks did not carry a pistol.
- 3.—This charge is absolutely a fabrication.
- 4.—Mr. Hanks was unable to call on the Magistrate, as he was detained by the crowd on the landing place.

PIRACY ON WEST RIVER.

THIRTY PASSENGERS TAKEN CAPTIVE.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

CANTON, Oct. 12. Another boat, the Sun Nam Hoi, on the Sze Wui-Wai Tsap run, was hijacked during the latter part of last week on the West River.

A group of bandits in disguise slipped on board the boat. When the vessel was passing White Olive, the desperadoes gave a signal to their comrades ambushed on shore, who at once opened fire.

The six guards on the boat were easily overpowered, and the vessel was systematically ransacked.

Two of the guards were killed and their bodies thrown overboard. Everything of value was taken. Some thirty passengers were taken captive.

The total loss is estimated at about $9,000.

ANTI-FRENCH BOYCOTT IN SWATOW.

KUOMINTANG HOLD INDIGNATION MEETING.

According to a Chinese Press report from Swatow, the boycott against the French has become exceedingly intense as a result of the recent incident in which a Chinese boatload is alleged to have been killed and six wounded by Annamese sailors on a French steamer. It is reported that the body of the boat was subsequently picked up and an inquest was held at which the French Consul was present.

The city Kuomintang summoned the representatives of the various organized bodies on the 7th instant to discuss the case when over 500 were present. A number of resolutions were passed among which were the organization of a special committee to take charge of the affair and the organisation of a demonstration parade.

A telegraphic circular has been issued to the people throughout the country and foreigners abroad giving details of the incident and asking their support. A telegram has also been dispatched to the Minister of Foreign Affairs in Nanjing requesting him to lodge a vigorous protest and to take the matter up with the French Minister. The public has been urged to boycott French steamers until the case is satisfactorily settled.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

Monday, October 8.—His Excellency, attended by Captain T. A. H. Colman, A.D.C., distributed medals to the St. John Ambulance Brigade at King's College.

Wednesday, October 9.—Captain Dowding of H.M.S. Cornwall luncheon at Government House.

Following strong protests through diplomatic as well as through private channels, Mr. Hanks was released after a detention of eight days.

The Cause of the Trouble.

The cause of all the trouble is the fact that artificial fertilizers are favoured by the farmers on account of their cheap price and the advantages which additional fertilization offers to farmers and for the development of Chinese agriculture. In course of time the turnover of artificial fertilizers has surpassed that of natural ones. A boycott against artificial fertilizers was started by the Native Goods Association in Swatow, which apparently is financed by the importers of beanseeds.

CHINESE BANDIT
ATROCITY.MISSES HARRISON AND NETTLETON BEHEADED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

FOOCHOW, Oct. 11. It appears that two of the go-betweens despatched in connection with Miss Nettleton and Miss Harrison went to the Communist camp, and one was taken prisoner, but the other returned with a letter from the Communists.

The go-between states that the heads of the ladies were taken from the scene of their decapitation to the bandit headquarters, the village of Shangmei, seven miles distant. Villagers informed the go-between that they had seen the heads.

The Communists' original intention was to despatch the heads to Kienning, but this was found to be impracticable.

Victims Subjected to Diabolical
Brutalities.

FOOCHOW, Oct. 10. The British Consul, Mr. A. J. J. Martin, and the Reverend Sills of the C.M.S., returned from Kienning to-day after several weeks of strenuous but futile effort to secure the release of the ladies, and they reveal that after three months of captivity in the Communist lair in the mountains of North Fukien, both Miss Nettleton and Miss Harrison were subjected to unusually cold-blooded brutalities, suffering terrible mental anguish.

They were given no liberty, no opportunity for exercise and no privacy. They were guarded night and day by at least four brigades, armed to the teeth, who were constantly suggesting to their victims that a horrible doom was impending.

The ladies were taken out to a lonely house on the hillside and beheaded following on a rival band's attack on the Communist headquarters, which were ten miles away.

Miss Harrison and Miss Nettleton left Chungking, in North Fukien, where they had carried on their work of mercy for several years, on June 26 last, bound for Foochow. They were travelling by boat along the Minkiang River and had covered about fifteen miles when the boatmen were attacked by Communist bandits, who took them prisoner and carried them off into the mountains to the North-East.

Chinese officials at Kienyangshan were informed of the outrage. At first they were indifferent, but later, on July 27, they definitely promised the British Consul that they were taking steps for the immediate release of the captives.

No Attempt to Release Ladies.

It appears that troops were actually sent into the area where the Reds reign supreme, but it is obvious they made no strenuous endeavour to release the ladies.

The promises of the Kienyangshan authorities was specifically renewed on August 10, but nothing was done.

General Lu Hsin Pang, the rebel leader, sent troops to Chungking, where the Communists were holding up the Boha tea crop, routed the Communists, and then ordered their return to Kienyangshan, escorting about five thousand Chinese refugees and a quantity of tea, for which services the refugees were compelled to pay $170,000.

Although Lu Hsin Pang's troops were right in the Red area, General Lu made no effort to release the lady missionaries, for whom the Communists were demanding a ransom of $100,000.

Communications Not Delivered to Captives.

After strenuous endeavours, the Rev. Sills obtained a go-between who reached the Communist headquarters on August 20, and who returned to Kienyangshan on September 6 and reported that none of the communications sent by the C.M.S. or the British Consul had reached the ladies.

Miss Harrison's Gruesome Ordeal.

The go-between graphically described how, while he was in the Communist camp on September 1, Miss Harrison and four Chinese prisoners were brought bound to the execution ground where, after five hours of a farcical trial standing in the sun without any protection whatever, the Communists shot one of their Chinese victims and clumsily beheaded three under Miss Harrison's eyes.

Miss Harrison Reprieved for a Fortnight.

Miss Harrison was reprieved for a fortnight while the go-between returned to Kienning with the demand for $100,000, failing which Miss Harrison's head would be sent to Kienning.

If this failed to produce a big sum Miss Nettleton's head would follow.

YEN-FENG-WANG
AGREE WITH CHIANGPEACE CONFERENCE ADVOCATED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

PEIPING, Oct. 12. The World Daily News states that Yen Hsi Shan, Feng Yu Hsiang and Wang Ching Wei have sent out a circular dated Shihchiachung, October 3, declaring that they have agreed to Chiang Kai Shek's recent pronouncement regarding rehabilitation. If the plan carries out a real rehabilitation programme they are willing to retire from public life.

They have withdrawn their troops to the north bank of the Yellow River in order to establish a practical armistice, and they urge Chiang Kai Shek to advocate the convocation of a peace and rehabilitation conference through fairplay methods.

WAR LORDS FALL OUT.

STARTLING REPORTS FROM THE NORTH.

According to a Chinese telegraphic dispatch from Nanking, the Central Government has received a wire from General Yang Hu Cheng to the effect that Government forces last Thursday occupied Loyang, a stronghold of the Kuomintang on the Lungai Railway.

The Government has also received a wire from General Ma Fu Hsiang to the effect that the scattered Shansi remnants on the southern bank of the Yellow River have been dissolved.

The Manchurian forces have notified the Shansi troops to evacuate Shihchiachung in five days, and Yen Hsi Shan is reported to have instructed his troops to comply with the demand.

In connection with the rumours of an alliance between Feng Yu Hsiang and Chiang Kai Shek, it is significant to note that recently the Nanking troops have refrained from further attacks on the Kuomintang forces and have allowed them to withdraw.

There is a rumour to the effect that Yen Hsi Shan has reached an understanding with Chang Hsueh Liang and that Chang has promised to co-operate with Yen on condition that the latter surrenders Hopei Province to the Manchurian troops, and that he severs his alliance with Feng Yu Hsiang against whom Chang has an old grudge.

It is reported that Yen has completely severed connections with Feng and has ceased his support of the Kuomintang, who are alleged to have offered to obey the Central Government and to attack the Shansi troops.

The leader added that if the church or the foreigners were unable to pay, then either the local or the Nanking authorities must. Based on the best available Chinese advice, the go-between returned with a counter-offer of $100,000, which the bandits scored. It was then decided to pay $50,000, and the go-between returned to the Communists to arrange the method of transmitting the ransom.

Captives' Effects Sold in Streets.

After their departure from Kienning, Mr. Martin and the Rev. Sills learned that Chinese were selling the contents of the ladies' boxes on the streets of Chungking, confirming the reports which had reached them that the ladies had been killed.

The cruel conduct of the Communists has amazed their own countrymen, and it is your correspondent's conviction that the motives were political, the Communists hoping to cause the Nanking Government trouble in their international affairs.

Communists' Defiance.

A letter written by the Communists after the murder reads:

"We have power to take you foreigners, to hold you to ransom and to kill you."

Memorial Service in London.

The memorial service for Miss Harrison and Miss Nettleton at St. Bride's Church, Fleet Street, was attended by relatives, representatives of churches of all denominations, two representatives of the Chinese Minister, Bishop Landier (formerly of Hong Kong) and Bishop Mow.

The Rev. Wilson Cash, in the course of a sermon, said the two ladies stood as a bulwark of Christianity against the tide of Bolshevism, and their sacrifice would not be in vain.

Britain Presenting Strong Note to Nanking.

It is understood that the British Government has only been waiting for details of the murder of Miss Harrison and Miss Nettleton before sending the strongest protest to Nanking.

Now that details have been published by Reuter, a Note will be despatched at the shortest possible moment.

DISCUSSED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

MOSCOW, Oct. 11. The first session of the Chinese and Soviet Conference called by virtue of the Khabarovsk Protocol of December 22, 1929, was held yesterday.

The Soviet delegate, M. Karakhan, addressed the Conference, and the Chinese delegate, Moh Teh Hui, replied.

The Conference discussed the question raised by the Soviet delegate of the necessity for a clear and unambiguous recognition of the Khabarovsk Protocol by the Chinese.

China Striving Towards Friendship With Soviet.

MOSCOW, Oct. 12. During the sitting of the Sino-Soviet Conference, M. Karakhan said he regretted that in spite of China's efforts she had hitherto not succeeded in shaping her relations with other countries on the basis of the Sino-Soviet agreement.

M. Karakhan declared that the Soviet Government had invariably insisted upon the strictest observance both in spirit and letter of the Peiping-Mukden treaties, which, together with the Khabarovsk Protocol, constituted the most important acts regulating Sino-Soviet relations.

Moh Teh Hui, in reply, emphasised that in spite of the misunderstandings of recent years China was continually striving towards friendship with the Soviet, and there should be no doubt that every treaty lawfully concluded between China and the Soviet would be met by China with that inviolable observance natural to international obligations.

RUSSIA DISCONTINUES
UNEMPLOYMENT PAY.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

MOSCOW, Oct. 10. It is officially announced that owing to the acute shortage of industrial workers, the Russian Commissariat of Labour has ordered unemployment pay to be discontinued.

DUKE OF NORTHUMBER-
LAND'S ESTATE.

DEATH DUTIES EXCEED A MILLION.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Oct. 10. The late Duke of Northumberland left over £2,500,000. So far as is at present ascertainable, the death duties exceed £1,000,000.

ROUMANIA'S CABINET CHANGES.

NATIONAL PEASANT
MINISTRY.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BUCHAREST, Oct. 10. The Cabinet has been reconstituted, with M. Mironescu as Premier and Foreign Minister.

It is largely identical with M. Maniu's Ministry, being of a purely national peasant complexion.

The Prime Minister, M. Maniu, leader of the Peasant Party, who brought back King Carol from exile, resigned as a sequel to trouble with his colleagues. It is generally believed that the relations between the Cabinet and the King are really at the bottom of the crisis.

FRANCE'S BUDGET.

COST OF NATIONAL DEFENCE
INCREASED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

PARIS, Oct. 10. The Budget for 1931 is estimated as follows:—
Revenue, 60,223,000,000 francs.
Expenditure, 60,145,000,000 francs.
Taxation has not increased, but the cost of national defence has risen by 749,000,000 francs.
Other expenditure has been drastically cut.

FALL OF LOYANG.

60,000 KUOMINCHUN
TROOPS DISARMED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NANKING, Oct. 11. It is officially claimed that the Government troops captured Loyang to-day.

A communiqué asserts that 60,000 Kuominchun troops under Chang Wei Hsi were disarmed yesterday at Hsincheng, north of Chengchow.

CHIANG KAI SHEK.

GROUNDLESS REPORTS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NANKING, Oct. 11. Reports that Chiang Kai Shek is leaving Nanking to attend an important conference are officially stated to be groundless. (Presumably this has reference to a conference between Chiang Kai Shek and Chang Hsueh Liang on Weihsaiwei.)

CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

ENLARGED PLENARY SESSION
DISSOLVED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

PEIPING, Oct. 12. The vernacular papers state that the Shansi authorities have dissolved the enlarged Plenary Session of the Central Executive Council, which recently attempted to function at Taiyuanfu, and they have allocated $10,000 to the members of the Session as travelling expenses.

ATTACK ON MR. SIMPSON.

PROTEST BY BRITISH MINISTER.

[Wah Tei Yat Pao.]

MURDER, Oct. 12. The British Minister, Sir Miles Lampson, has wired Chang Hsueh Liang protesting against the attempted assassination of Mr. Lenox Simpson and requesting vigorous measures for the capture of the would-be assassins.

Chang Hsueh Liang has wired the Tientsin authorities to deal with the matter.

CHEN MING SHU AT NANKING.

[Wah Tei Yat Pao.]

SHANGHAI, Oct. 12. General Chen Ming Shu, the Chairman of the Kwangtung Provincial Government, and Mr. Lin Wan Koi, the Canton Mayor, arrived at Shanghai yesterday and left for Nanking to-day to interview Chiang Kai Shek.

OUTRAGE IN MEXICO.

PEASANTS INCINERATED IN A CHURCH.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 10. A message from Mexico City states that religious enemies murdered 80 peasants in a church at San Carlos, in the State of Tabasco.

They set fire to the building and the inmates were incinerated, or shot whilst attempting to escape.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

SANTIAGO (Chl.), Oct. 11. The death is announced of Col. Milton J. McRae, one of the founders of the Scripps-McRae league of newspapers.

CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE
AT BOMBAY.57 DEMONSTRATORS ARRESTED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BOMBAY, Oct. 11. Fifty-seven civil disobedience demonstrators, including three women, who were arrested by the police in a raid on a house this morning, were sentenced to terms ranging from four months' simple imprisonment to eighteen months' rigorous imprisonment under the Criminal Law Amendment Act.

Congress Committees Declared
Unlawful.

LATER.

The Bombay Government have proclaimed several Congress and allied organisations in the Ahmedabad, Broach, Kaira and Surat districts as unlawful associations.

The police at Bardoli and Surat raided the Gandhi colleges and confiscated the property and made 30 arrests.

LATER.

The police hauled down the national flags flying over Bardoli and Surat swarans (seminaries), and the Union Jack was substituted.

SURAT, Oct. 11.

It is reported from Broach that the police took possession of the office of the local Congress Committee, and arrested 28.

ALLAHABAD, Oct. 22.

The Government of the United Provinces have declared the Congress Committees in the Benares district as unlawful associations.

Property Liable to Seizure.

SIMAL, Oct. 10.

The Viceroy has promulgated an Ordinance empowering local Governments to seize the property of any association declared unlawful.

BURIAL OF R.101
HEROES.

CORTEGE WATCHED BY SORROWING CITIZENS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Oct. 11. London's principal thoroughfares between Westminster and Euston were thronged with tens of thousands of sorrowing citizens to-day, to watch the passing of the funeral cortege of the R.101 victims on the way to their burial place at St. Mary's Churchyard, Cardington.

The procession, headed by comrades of the dead, included the relatives and members of the Air Council, the Army Council, the Board of Admiralty, men forming the third watch of the R.101, the crew of the R.100, Mr. Ramsay MacDonald and all the Dominion Prime Ministers, representatives of India, and foreign attachés.

Army waggons bearing the coffins were preceded by the Royal Wreaths and an Air Force band playing Chopin's Funeral March.

A prominent figure was the Zeppelin commander, Dr. Hugo Eckener, in uniform, who was a friend of Major Scott.

Business places along the route were temporarily closed and the church bells tolled.

Fifty Thousand People View
Lying-in-State.

A total of 60,000 people filed past the R.101 coffins in Westminster Hall, which was originally arranged to close at 9 p.m. It was kept open to the public till 12.35 a.m.

The crowd was so great that mounted police were frequently obliged to ride among the crowd to clear the way for traffic.

Bedford Town Deserter to Join in Obsequies.

LONDON, Oct. 11. Bedford town was silent and almost deserted this afternoon, the population joining the crowds of 75,000 strong lining the road to Cardington and silently watching the passing of the long procession of coffins containing the remains of the R.101 heroes to St. Mary's Churchyard, where they were buried in a common grave lined with grass and flowers.

Two flights of bombers circled overhead in a last salute.

DISARMAMENT
COMMISSION.DELEGATES APPOINTED BY THE UNITED STATES.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11. President Hoover has appointed Mr. Hugh Gibson, American Ambassador to Belgium, and Mr. Wilson, American Minister to Switzerland, as the United States delegates to the League of Nations Preparatory Commission on Disarmament, which is to meet at Geneva in November.

The Bishop of St. Albans and the Chaplain-in-Chief of the Royal Air Force were among the clergy who conducted the service, after which three volleys were fired and trumpeters sounded the Last Post and Reveille.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUEUX, Oct. 11. H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, representing the King and accompanied by his brother, the Duke of York, took part in the memorial service to the victims of the R.101 disaster in St. Paul's Cathedral.

The Prime Minister, with his two daughters, and almost all the members of the Cabinet and several ex-Cabinet Ministers and their wives and members of Parliament attended.

The Dominions' Premiers and other delegates to the Imperial Conference were present in a body.

The French Air Minister, M. Laurent Eynac, the Italian Air Minister, General Balbo, and the Belgian Minister of Communications, M. Lippens, came specially to London to attend the service, as did Dr. Eckener, one of the pioneers of airship travel in Germany.

The simple service was broadcast throughout the Empire and was relayed by all the German stations.

Requiem in Westminster
Cathedral.

A solemn Requiem Mass was simultaneously held at Westminster Roman Catholic Cathedral.

After the service in St. Paul's, large crowds filed past the scorched and tattered flag of the R.101, which draped the altar.

Scores of thousands of people paid a tribute of respect to the victims of the R.101, whose bodies, in coffins covered by Union Jacks, and surrounded by wreaths and flowers, lay in state throughout to-day at Westminster Hall.

Special police arrangements were necessary to control the traffic in the neighbourhood, which, particularly in the late evening, became very congested.

By permission of the King, Westminster Hall remained open till ten o'clock to-night, and a constant stream of silent mourners continued long after dark.

BRAZIL DOMINATED BY REBEL FORCES.FEDERAL GOVERNMENT'S POSITION.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Oct. 11. H.M. cruiser Delhi has departed from Port of Spain, Trinidad, at full speed for Pernambuco.

LONDON, Oct. 10. The Admiralty announces that the cruisers Delhi and Dauntless, which are stationed at Trinidad and Kingston, Jamaica, respectively, have been ordered to stand by in case they have to go to Brazil to protect British interests.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

U.S. Cruiser Under Orders.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11. The United States cruiser Pensacola has been ordered to proceed to Quantanamo, and will proceed later to Brazil if it becomes necessary to evacuate the Americans owing to the revolution.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

"Terroristic Rumours."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10. The Brazilian Embassy declares that the Federal Government is in a position to stamp out the revolution, and has warned Brazilians not to believe "terroristic rumours."

Federal Forces Defeat Rebels.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 11. A Government communiqué claims that the Federal forces defeated the rebels in the State of Para.

The communiqué says that the Government expects to restore peace shortly.

The rebels claim that 12 States are absolutely in their possession, while the Federal Government retains only seven States.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 10. The Minister of Marine has ordered several merchant vessels to be armed with guns to co-operate with the warships.

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 11. The Brazilian destroyer Maranhão (the former British destroyer Porpoise) has engaged the revolutionary forces off Imbutuba in an effort to cover the landing of the Federal troops, but it is reported that the warship was forced to retire.

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 10. The Brazilian revolutionaries claim that their forces dominate the whole of Brazil, except Rio de Janeiro, São Paulo, and Amazonas. They say that the fleet is powerless, as the insurgents control the wireless system.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10. It appears that the loyalty of the Brazilian Navy, which is a very critical factor for the Government, hangs on the thinnest thread.

It is reported that at least one cruiser has hoisted the Red flag and gone over to the rebels.

[The Navy consists of two battleships, three cruisers, and a number of light craft.]

LAST SEASON'S SOCCER CHAMPIONS DEFEATED.

ARGYLL AND SUTHERLAND HIGHLANDERS' GREAT VICTORY.

SOUTH CHINA EASILY ACCOUNTS FOR POLICE.

Week-end football was again favoured with ideal weather conditions which resulted in no less than thirteen games being played.

The surprise of the day was the sensational defeat of the Chinese Athletic Association at the hands of the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders. The Police had a lean time against South China who scored five goals, while poor shooting on the part of the Club forwards robbed them of full points against the Artillery.

In the Second Division, Kowloon defeated the R.A.; the Argyll's second string lost to the Navy seconds; Somersets beat St. Joseph's; and the other two matches were drawn.

The Third Division matches went much as expected, R.E. again winning and they seem a likely team to obtain the honours in this division.

WEEK-END FOOTBALL IN BRIGHT WEATHER.

DIVISION I.

Argylls v. Athletics.

The Argylls created a surprise in football circles on Saturday when they beat Chinese Athletics by three goals to nil at the Stadium.

The teams were:—

Athletic: Chan Sik Pui; Leung Yik Tong and Lai Yik Tat; Ho Cho Yin, Wong Suk Wah and Lai Kwok Chiu; Mak Kwok Tung; Lam Yik Ying, Ho Ka Keung; Li Yee Sun and Li Hung Ching.

Argylls: Gardner; Blackburn and Anderson; Gordon; McGlashan and Yeoman; Christie, Wylie, Campbell, McQuade, Hughes.

The Highlanders kicked-off and took the ball into the Chinese territory but the backs cleared. Play was very fast and Christie was conspicuous for some good centres, but he received little support in the early stages. Then play was transferred to the Highlanders' half and for a time the Chinese appeared dangerous. Play was very exciting now and both goals had narrow escapes, but half time came with no goals scored.

The second half saw the Argylls pressing, and from a corner kick Wylie made no mistake, placing the ball into the corner of the net with a beautifully timed shot. Shortly after Campbell added another goal for them and then an amusing interval was caused through the ball bursting! After a new ball was obtained, Wylie netted the third goal which brought an end to a really well contested game. The final scores were:—

Argylls	3
Athletic	0

Royal Navy v. Somersets.

The Somersets pleased their supporters by beating the Navy to the tune of 3 goals to 1 when they met on Saturday. The teams lined up as under:—

Somersets: Verrier; Huish and Farley; Knapp, West and Harris; Rayson, Guest, Troth, Denmead and Butcher.

Royal Navy: Turner; Binmore and Bell; Mellett, Chadwick and Kearney; Anstis, Cann, Hassell, Woon, and Dickinson.

The opening stages of the game were quite even but the soldiers soon got into their stride and then raided the Navy goal to give their defence an anxious time. Butcher, the Soldiers' winger, ran down beautifully and passed in to Troth, who slammed the leather into the net. Then again Butcher got possession of the ball and sent in a shot which was deflected over the line, giving the soldiers a corner. The Navy, however, cleared, and the ball was taken to the Somersets' half where Cann tried Verrier with a low shot but the goalie brought off a fine save.

Then followed a spell of "lost opportunities" on the part of both teams for chance after chance for scoring went begging. A misunderstanding between the soldiers' backs saw Anstis gain possession of the ball which he drove into the net for the equalizer. Shortly before half-time the Navy goalie misjudged a high shot which was spinning a lot and let the ball in to give the S.L.I. a 2-1 lead at the interval.

The Final Goal.

The first twenty minutes after play was resumed saw some even play, the ball being taken first to one end and then to the other. Rayson was called upon to do a lot of work but lost the ball several times as he is one of those players who cannot take a "running kick." After a while the ball was sent out to Butcher on the left wing who sent in the ball to Denmead. This player centered to Guest the latter, making no mistake, found the net with a ground shot.

The Somersets were still pressing when the final whistle went with the score:—

Somersets L.I.	3
Royal Navy	1

Club v. R.A.

A remarkable exhibition of goal-keeping by Fletcher saved the R.A. time and again in this match which ended in a draw with the score-sheet blank.

The teams were:—
H.K. Club: Rodgers; Strange and Bishop; Segellan, J. Stewart and McBride; Strange (jun.), Bell, Goldman, A. Duncan, and Wallington (captain).

R.A.: Fletcher (captain); Oliver and Frearson; Watson, Hall and Jolice; Walker, Woods, Gill, Allen and Gough.

The match was on the whole a very tame affair, and though the Club lost several chances of scoring, their defence was good, with the result that their goal was never in any danger.

The Club pressed early, Duncan trying Fletcher with a stinging shot. Then Wallington tried the goalie with another and this, too, was easily cleared. The Gunners then attacked and a foul against Bishop gave them a free kick but Rodgers cleared easily. More opportunities to score were not taken full advantage of and half-time came with no score.

Very much the same thing happened in the second half, Fletcher winning rounds of applause for bringing off some very fine saves. A penalty against the Gunners promised well for the Club but although Segellan, who took the kick, sent in a "daisy-cutter," Fletcher brought off a wonderful save. The Club's shooting was so poor that the least of it, poor and robbed them of what should have been their first win of the season. They were still trying when the final whistle went without any goals being scored.

Police v. South China.

The fine goal-keeping of Clark saved the Police from a heavier defeat when these teams met on the Kowloon Football Club ground. Clark played a great game but had little or no support from the rest of the team, with the result that the Chinese found the net on no less than five occasions.

The teams were:—

Police: Clark; Perkins, and Williams; Cornwall, Oram and McGrovey; T. Pile, Thorpe, Fraser, Shepherd and Noonan.

South China: Pau Ka Ping; Tam Kong Pak and Lee Tin Sang; Leung Yin Chan, Leung Wing Jin and Tong Kwai; Cheng Shin Hong, Chu Kwok Lun; Fung King Cheung, Lau Mau and Ip Pak Wa.

Hundreds of Chinese turned out to watch their team play and they must have gone away well satisfied with the excellent exhibition of team work.

The start was fast and crisp, both goals being visited in quick succession. Fraser and Cheng Shin Hong spoilt very promising moves for their respective sides by being off-side. The Police defence was now having a very hard time of it and were called upon to clear time after time. Then Fung King Cheung got the ball, and sending in a snorter, had Clark beaten all the way. Almost immediately after a penalty was awarded against the Police and Fung made no mistake with the spot kick to put South China 2 goals up. Half time came with the Police on the defensive and two goals in arrears.

When play was resumed, Fung King Cheung ran down the field to try Clark with a very hard shot. The goalie stopped this but failed to hold it properly and the ball went to Ip Pak Wa who scored easily.

Things then took a turn and the Police had a short spell in the Chinese half but nothing came of it. The ball was sent out to midfield where Ip Pak Wa was standing unmarked. This player did a solo run which resulted in a goal, stimulated by their success, the Chinese were again pressing when Lau Mau received a pass from Ip Pak Wa and scored the fifth and last goal for South China.

Mention must be made of the way Clark kept goal. He was truly the hero of the day, as the score against the Police would no doubt have been heavier had it not been for his wonderful goal-keeping.

DIVISION II.

Kowloon v. R.A.

Playing at Sookunpo, this game was marred by an unfortunate accident to Simpson, the Kowloon centre-half, who during a mêlée near the touch line, received a kick on the side of the jaw which had to be attended to at the St. Paul's Hospital and two stitches put in. Right from the start the R.A. took charge of the game and gave Kowloon a lot to worry about but the Kowloon defence were able to keep off the attackers. However, the R.A. did make use of one of their chances and at half-time they were leading by one goal to nil.

At the resumption, Kowloon attacked and were soon awarded a penalty and Gilchrist made no mistake. Later in a mêlée, Hawke scored another goal for Kowloon to give them the lead. Ding-dong play followed for the next ten minutes; Brown, who had been playing well, got the ball and sent in a cross shot which completely beat the Gunners' keeper.

Result: Kowloon 3; R.A. 1.

Mr. Hayball lined up the teams as under:—

Kowloon: Gurevitch; Moss; Hast; Hawke; Simpson; Smith; Brown, Davies, Gilchrist, Everest and Bickford.

R.A.: Joynton; Malby; Morris; Willis, Hadkiss, Eardly; Price; Reed, Fredericks and Schofield.

Club v. University.

Playing at home, the Hong Kong Club reserves did well to draw against the University eleven. Shortly after the start a good forward movement by Gray and King resulted in King beating Oppenheim to obtain the lead, which they kept till half-time. After the interval the University started attacking and Khe qualified for the "Grades" by sending in a nice shot which beat the Club's keeper.

Result: Club 1; University 1.
Hong Kong Club Res.: Stirring; Sloan, Potouloff; Hynes, Panchen, Krilovsky; Peers; Gray; King; Smith, Tait.

Somersets v. St. Joseph's.

This game was played on St. Joseph's ground and resulted in a win for the soldiers by 3 goals to 2. The "Saints" were unfortunate in missing their regular goalie, and this was largely responsible for their defeat. The Somersets opened their scoring through Legge but Goodman soon equalised for the "Saints." Guest went on to put the Somersets further in the lead but the Collogo lads again equalised through Roberts. Somersets then pressed and Savigan was lucky in gaining the lead as his shot was a simple ground shot which Rochin let in.

Result: — Somersets 3; St. Joseph's 2.

Somersets: Lilley; Orien Fothergill; Savigan, Cornelius, Legge; Rendle, Guest, Hicks, Lysdon, Chislett.

St. Joseph's: S. A. L. Rahman; I. Gomes R. F. Marcell; Gutierrez, O. M. Omar; Wee-Teng; D. Leonard, A. Roberts, J. Goodman, A. Omar.

Argylls v. Navy.

The Navy seconds defeated the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders on the Kowloon Football Ground by six goals to two in an interesting match. Wells, the Navy forward, was the outstanding player, obtaining four goals for the Senior Service. Toomy and Lowden each contributed one and brought the total to six. (The soldiers played fine football in the second half and King replied for them shortly before the final whistle blew.)

Result: — Navy 6; Argylls 2.

Navy: Savage; Noonan, Dewey; Pope, James, Davies; Lowden, Toomy, Wells, Wooton, and Parsons.

Argylls: Stewart, Doherty, Fraser; Stewart, Grant, McDonald; McKenna, Baird, King, Cannon, and Walker.

Athletic v. Eastern.

Playing at Caroline Hill this game ended in a goalless draw. The Eastern players were superior in every department of the game but wild kicking, which might have become dangerous, spoilt their chances. The same thing happened in the second half and the Athletic missed their only scoring chance, when with only the goalie to beat, one of the forwards shot over the bar at a range of about four yards.

Result: — Athletic 0; Eastern 0.

Athletic: Wong Yui Sing; Wong Sui Wo, Wong Sik Ping; Ng Po Lan, Ng Yui Hing, Fung Man Kit; Chow Yun Ching, Shui Kai Choi, Yung Pan Po, Chan Yun Kwai, Fung King In.

Eastern: J. F. da Silva; Lai Tung Chai, Szeto Hoi; Lai Kong Heo, Sui Ping Shun, Lam Kwok Iu; M. Sabban, Mak Siu Hon, Ng Po Kin, A. K. Minou, Li Ping Tong.

Referee: Mr. Goodrich.

DIVISION III.

South China v. R.A.F.

This match, which was played at Caroline Hill, was very evenly contested and the Airmen did not deserve to lose. The only goal of the match was scored by Chue Fook for the Chinese, who in showing a fine turn of speed, took the Airs men by surprise and sent in a "stinger" which few goalkeepers could have stopped. After this the players indulged in a ding-dong struggle till the end with the Chinese still leading.

Result: South China 1; R.A.F. 0.

R.E. v. Athletic.

The Royal Engineers, who last week defeated the Somersets, continued in their winning vein; this time their victims were the Chinese Athletic. Madan opened the scoring for the Engineers and soon afterwards Kinsbury did the hat-trick.

Result: R.E. 4; Athletic 0.

R.E.: Brewer; Dolling, Jopling; Planer, Grosener, Fretwell; Leslie, Davies, Kinshury Morgan, Madan.

Athletic: Leo Ho Cheun; Ting Kwong Wing, (Fung Cheung Par); Leung Kam Fook, Choy Lup Fung, Wong Wing Nim; Sui Dai Lim, Hu Lu Wai, Chan Chung Hin, Ha Kam Hung, Lai Ting Choi.

Referee: Mr. Aiyco.

Somersets v. Fukien.

Playing on the St. Joseph's ground the Somersets easily defeated the Fukien Club by four goals to one. The goals scored by the soldiers were through Churchill (2), Walker and Penny. The Fukien Club replied with their only goal through Tse Tak Kong.

Somersets: L/C. Reano; Wride, Briestowe; Lloyd, Penny, L/C. Fear, Churchill, Latcham, Walker, Cotton, Keall.

Fukien: Wong Sul Ki; Ma Ping, Ch. Ng, Tin Fai, Mak Tak Tai, How Sun Chi, Chow Wa Sang; Chan Wing Kong, Chang, Kow Sang, Tse Tak Kong, Tan Teng Kan, Leung Chu Man.

Referee: A. B. Goddall.

WEEK-END CRICKET FAVOURED WITH GLORIOUS WEATHER.

HONG KONG-KOWLOON MATCH DECIDED ON FIRST INNINGS.

THE SUPERIORITY OF BAT OVER BALL AGAIN

Glorious weather favoured week-end cricket and as a result of the fine state of the wickets generally, some high individual scores were returned, although one or two bowlers also met with considerable success.

The two-day fixture between the Hong Kong and Kowloon Cricket Clubs resulted in a win for the former on the first innings, there not being sufficient time for either side to go in for the second time.

The superiority of the bat over ball was once again emphasised though in some cases the high scoring was due more to poor fielding than anything else.

HIGH INDIVIDUAL SCORES RETURNED.

K.C.C. v. H.K.C.C.

This two-day match, which started on Friday, resulted in a win for the Hong Kong Cricket Club by the narrow margin of 17 runs on the first innings.

When play was resumed on Saturday E. C. Fincher and W. C. Hung batted steadily for a time and looked like giving the visiting team some trouble in the field, but when well set, the latter had the misfortune to play on off Owen Hughes. Fincher played a sterling game while Smith made 29 in fine style.

The scores were:—

H.K.C.C. 2nd XI. v. K.C.C. 2nd XI.

After playing a whole-day match on Friday, these Clubs engaged in an afternoon fixture on the following day when some good batting was seen.

The H.K.C.C. batted first, and with Anstruther rattling up 67 runs, were able to declare at 181 for 5 wickets. Planner helped materially with 34, while "Mr. Extras" contributed 25.

Kowloon were allowed very limited time in which to get the runs, but they made a good effort, and when stumps were drawn, were only 28 runs behind with five wickets in hand. F. Skinner made an excellent 44, Raven helped with 29 while Hall and Fraser had 25 apiece.

Scores:—

PHOSFERINE
a blessing . . . no pain now
. . . better in three days.

"I always had got pains in my arms and legs, and I suffered from severe nervous headaches, but I do not have them now, thanks to Phosferine. At first I thought I should never be well again, but when I heard that my brother was taking Phosferine I thought I would try it, and in the first two or three days I began to feel better, and I sleep better, which is a blessing at my age, as I am 71 and people say I am a wonder for my age. I am still healthy and well, and am able to carry out my household duties, and in addition I have also been nursing and looking after an old gentleman, besides shopping which means a mile and a half of walking daily—I could not have done it without the help of Phosferine, as the influenza left me feeling very weak and broken in health. I find so many people, when they get on in years, think nothing will do them good, but I say to them, do not think that, take Phosferine, and what it has done for me it can do for you." I advise others to take Phosferine and guard against nerve pains and influenza, etc., and anyone who has suffered that way should take it to build themselves up again." ATHLETIC SPORTS.

RECROIO'S ANNUAL MEETING.

"HIPPO" D'ALMADA'S FINE
PERFORMANCES.

Bright and sunny weather favoured the Club de Recroio yesterday when they held their third annual athletic meeting on their ground at King's Park. This, like its predecessors, proved to be a great success, both from the point of the keen competition in all the events and the attendance.

C. D'Almada e Castro proved once again to be the best sprinter in the Portuguese community, winning both the 100 yards and quarter mile open championship in fine style. He also came in first in the 220 yards handicap and mention must be made of the fact that although he was scratch man and there were a couple of starters some 10 yards in front of him at the pistol, he put on a tremendous burst of speed to break the tape first.

At the conclusion of the races, Mr. Leo d'Almada e Castro, president of the Club, made a short speech in which he welcomed Mrs. A. F. B. Silva Netto to the Club. He said that the members of the Club were very honoured by her consenting to give away the awards and on behalf of them, he thanked her for coming. Regarding the races, Mr. d'Almada said that although some very fine sport was seen, the number of entries were comparatively small and unless more enthusiasm was shown by the younger members of the Club, he was afraid that there would be no sports next year. He then called upon Mrs. Silva Netto to present the prizes.

S.S. KURI MARU.

LAUNCHING CEREMONY AT KOWLOON DOCK.

The s.s. Kuri Maru, a steel vessel built by the Hong Kong & Whampoa Dock Co., Ltd., at Kowloon Dock, for Messrs. Lever's Pacific Plantations Pty., Ltd., Sydney, for service between Sydney and the Solomon Islands, was officially launched on Saturday, Mrs. Gordon Mackie performing the ceremony.

The Kuri Maru is classed + 100 A.1 at Lloyd's, and scantlings are in excess of this, as specified by owners. The dimensions are 125' 0" x 25' 0" x 10' 6", with a deadweight of about 250 tons.

The propelling machinery is amidship, and consists of one Deutz single acting 4-stroke airless injection full Diesel engine, developing 330 h.p. and constructed to Hong Kong Government Marine Surveyor's and Lloyd's requirements.

Accommodation is provided for the crew in a sunk forecabin. Officers and engineers are accommodated on the main deck amidship, and four single berth state rooms are provided on a shade deck aft for 1st class passengers.

There are two holds for cargo, forward and aft of machinery space. The deck windlass and derrick winch are electrically driven. The vessel is fitted throughout with electric light, and constructed on the most approved principles.

REHABILITATING A LOST REPUTATION.

STRANGE CASE IN FRANCE.

M. Charles Hartmann, a native of Alsace and now a citizen of the United States, was rehabilitated from a conviction of holding intelligence with the enemy during the War, and the death sentence by default which had been passed upon him in 1919 was revoked, by the Paris military court last month.

M. Hartmann had emigrated to America in 1972 to avoid the German conscription, and had never returned to Europe until this year. He then visited his old home in Alsace, and was surprised to find that he had been condemned to death as a spy during his absence. He immediately went to the police for an explanation, and was kept under arrest until information confirming the facts of his life during the last 18 years of his life received from his present home in California. It appears that an accomplice of Guibaux, a Frenchman accused of holding intelligence with the enemy from Switzerland, had had identity papers forged in Hartmann's name. He was tried together with Guibaux in October, 1919, and both were condemned to death.

The law does not permit the military court to award the real Hartmann any damages for the prejudice the mistake has caused him, or for false imprisonment.

EMPIRE CONFERENCE

BRITAIN CANNOT IMPOSE FOODSTUFFS TAX.

(BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE)

Rome, Oct. 11.

There was no formal meeting of the Imperial Conference or of its various Committees to-day, and as usual business will also be discontinued to-morrow.

Prime Minister Entertains Guests at Chequers.

The Prime Minister left for Chequers this morning after the funeral procession had passed through London.

Mr. and Mrs. Scullin and Mr. McGilligan are spending the weekend at Chequers, and other members of the Australian and Irish delegations will be guests there at luncheon to-morrow.

Meanwhile, the economic questions before the Conference are receiving widespread attention, notably the proposals for tariff modification and increased preference for Empire products.

In this connection the Canadian Premier Bennett's suggestions are regarded as an important contribution to the discussions now proceeding within the Conference.

British Government's Position Made Clear.

The British Government has made it clear to the other Governments represented at the Conference that while it is willing to consider any proposal which may be brought forward—not excluding preferences—any such consideration must be based on two central conditions—that the Government cannot agree to any proposal which will involve an increase in the cost of living in this country, and that nothing can be done which would interfere suddenly with commercial treaties with foreign countries which are already in existence.

Speeches on Empire Trade.

Empire trade was the subject of several speeches by Ministers and others last night.

The Dominions' Secretary, Mr. J. H. Thomas, emphasised in other words the view of the Government as stated above.

Their position, he said, was exactly that of the Dominions, who naturally place their own part of the Empire first. The British Government, he said, also must give their first thought in all these discussions to their own country with their difficulties and responsibilities. The President of the Board of Trade, Mr. W. G. Cham, in a speech at Edinburgh, said the taxation of foodstuffs and raw materials would be disastrous for the British people as consumers, and for important sections of their industry and commerce. It would immediately raise the cost of production. It would throw Great Britain into the turmoil of a tariff war, the utility of which in post-war conditions had been abundantly demonstrated, and it would involve for millions of people a reduction in real wages.

In the Imperial Conference the Government would do everything in its power to secure agreement with the Dominions' representatives in various forms of commercial development. In that sphere there was much of a most valuable reciprocal character that could be undertaken without imposing tariffs on foodstuffs and raw materials imported into Great Britain. The best of Dominion opinion recognized that it was impossible to expect the United Kingdom to impose duties on its foodstuffs and raw materials.

The First Lord of the Admiralty, Mr. Alexander, in a speech at Sheffield, protested against the exploitation of the Imperial Conference by those who advocated a change of policy regarding tariff yesterday.

Value of Preference and Tariffs.

Rome, Oct. 10.

The third meeting of the Committee of the Imperial Conference on certain aspects of inter-Imperial relations was held this afternoon at the House of Lords, under the Chairmanship of the Lord Chancellor.

On certain questions referred to the Committee, including questions relating to the issue of Exequaturs to Foreign Consuls, and the form and ratification of treaties.

These matters raise technical points of procedure in which, generally speaking, questions of principle are of minor importance. No further formal consideration was given to-day to economic problems by the Conference. The position regarding them is that certain suggestions have been placed before the Conference.

The Plenary Session on Wednesday indicates in particular the views of the Dominions on the one possible method of improving Empire trade, namely, by means of tariffs and preference. These and other proposals on the same subject, some of which were indicated in the preliminary agenda of the Conference, are being closely examined.

Regarding preferences, there is some experience to work upon in these examinations and their effect and value, and the desirability of continuing or extending the system is one of the subjects of study. Another question which has been taken up is that of wheat, and conversations are actively proceeding between the delegates interested in producing and marketing wheat.

Empire Crusaders Must Fight.

London, Oct. 10.

Lord Beaverbrook, in a statement in regard to Mr. Stanley Baldwin's declaration, says that the Empire crusaders must continue to fight until they know that what Mr. Baldwin intends to submit to the people includes duty on foreign foodstuffs.

Mr. Stanley Baldwin stated a few days ago that the Conservative Party will be guided by the views expressed at the Imperial Conference, and will formulate its own proposals for carrying out the principle of Imperial Preference and submit them to the people at the next election for their final and definite assent.

AMERICAN EXPORT OF HELIUM.

ENCOURAGED BY THE GOVERNMENT.

(REUTERS' AMERICAN SERVICE)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.

President Hoover stated that the American Government is encouraging rather than hampering the export of helium. The law expressly provided that the Government might at any time issue licenses to export the gas. Every application for licenses after two years would be granted.

PANIC ON NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

DELUGE OF SELLING.

(REUTERS' AMERICAN SERVICE)

New York, Oct. 10.

A deluge of selling, the like of which has not been seen in Wall Street since the slump of last autumn, swept over the Exchange this morning, sweeping away hundreds of millions of dollars and quoted values and sending such old market stalwarts as the United States Steel and General Electric, and the Standard Oil of New Jersey to new low levels for the year, causing something like a panic, but the afternoon market reacted strongly, and there were many new advances from two to six points.

The following market report, dated September 28, has been issued by the Société Indo-Chinoise de Commerce, Saigon:

The rice market has been rather more active, some business having been effected with France and Java.

Prices which were slowly declining at the beginning of the week have consequently become firmer and finally advanced the last days of the week under review. This was due principally to the fact that some shippers were short and have to cover.

On the whole business has not been very large and does not justify the present rise which we think is momentary.

Market closes firm with no sellers at the following prices:

No. 1 long 25 per cent. and round 25 per cent.: 100 francs per 100Ks.; 6.55 guilders per Java pikul; 5.00 guilders per pikul; 0/7 shillings per cwt.

No. 2 Japan 40 per cent.: 105 francs per 100Ks.; 6/70 guilders per Java pikul; 4.82 guilders per pikul; 8/4 shillings per cwt.

Shipments October F.O.B. Saigon.

New Crop.—Some demands have been received for new crop December/January/February, and some business has been closed, principally to France, at prices about 20 cents per pikul below those above.

Paddy.—Arrivals continue to be sufficient but sellers are holding up their prices and completely withdrawing on the last days following the rise of rice.

"FAST TICKERS" FOR STOCK PRICES.

NEW YORK'S INNOVATION.

The New York Stock Exchange in Wall Street has been equipped with the latest thing in improved tape machines, known there as "fast tickers." This latest ticker is worked at a much quicker rate than its predecessors, and for that reason has been christened the "fast ticker."

According to reports discussed in London, Wall Street's new "fast ticker" will, it is claimed, keep up with current prices in times of heavy dealings instead of being some hours late, as happened, for instance, during the slump in stocks not very long ago.

On the Stock Exchange it was felt that New York's innovation more brings that stockbroking centre into line with the up-to-date arrangements here. It will be interesting, however, to know more about Wall Street's latest "fast tickers" and to ascertain if London has anything to learn from New York in the matter of tape machine service.

Stock and share prices here do not fluctuate so much as on Wall Street, where there are no jobbers. There, the stock change hands between brokers only, and heavy buying or selling is at once reflected in the tickers' record. Here the jobbers may have big amounts of stock or large numbers of shares sold to them by brokers or may sell heavily to buying brokers without altering their quotations to any important extent. Frequently this occurs and no change is made in the prices previously quoted. The incidence of the jobbers in London is another thing that Wall Street in time may care to copy. Frequent heavy buying or selling by the jobbers proved a stabilizing quantity in times of boom or slump.
